APPELLATE EXPERTS TO REVIEW 2005 SUPREME COURT TERM

Friday, June 23, 2006, 9:00 a.m.

The Washington Legal Foundation (WLF) will hold a media briefing Friday, June 23, at 9:00 a.m. at its M.J. Murdock Center for Free Enterprise, 2009 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. (near the Dupont Circle Metro North Exit). The speakers will assess rulings that affect the free enterprise system and other key developments from the Court's 2005 term.

Miguel A. Estrada is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of the law firm Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is Co-Chair of the firm's Appellate and Constitutional Law Practice Group. Mr. Estrada has handled a broad range of matters before the United States Supreme Court. He has argued 18 cases before that Court, and briefed many others. From 1992 until 1997, Mr. Estrada served as Assistant to the Solicitor General of the United States. He previously served as Assistant U.S. Attorney and Deputy Chief of the Appellate Section, U.S. Attorney's Office, Southern District of New York. Mr. Estrada served as a law clerk to the Honorable Anthony M. Kennedy in the U.S. Supreme Court from 1988-1989.

Thomas C. Goldstein is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of the law firm Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld LLP, where he heads the firm's Supreme Court practice. In the Supreme Court and elsewhere, Mr. Goldstein has briefed and argued cases spanning a broad array of federal law questions – including both constitutional and statutory issues – for corporate, governmental and individual clients. Mr. Goldstein has argued 16 cases before the Supreme Court. In addition to practicing law, Mr. Goldstein teaches Supreme Court litigation at both Stanford Law School and Harvard Law School. Since 2003, he has been principally responsible for SCOTUSblog (www.scotusblog.com), which is devoted to coverage of the Court and is widely recognized as one of the nation's leading legal blogs.

Andrew J. Pincus is a partner in Washington, D.C. office of the law firm Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP. He specializes in briefing and arguing cases in the Supreme Court of the United States and in federal and state appellate courts as well as developing legal arguments in trial courts. Mr. Pincus has argued 13 cases before the Supreme Court and filed briefs in more than 100 cases in that Court. He previously served as General Counsel to Andersen Worldwide S.C., 2001-2003; Assistant to the Solicitor General, United States Department of Justice, 1984-1988; and Law Clerk to The Honorable Harold H. Greene, United States District Court for the District of Columbia, 1981-1982.
