

LITIGATION OR BANKRUPTCY: CUTTING THROUGH THE HYPERBOLE OVER EQUITABLE MASS-TORT RESOLUTIONS

Live Zoom Webcast
Thursday, April 21, 2022
1:00 p.m. — 2:00 p.m. EST

When product-liability and other tort litigation reaches (to borrow Justice Souter's phrase) an elephantine mass, defendants often must confront a Hobson's choice of settlement. What process, and which venue, offers the best avenue for fairly compensating alleged while minimizing transaction costs and fraud continues to be hotly debated. A recent bankruptcy court decision provides a timely platform for our legal and policy expert panelists to discuss judicially managed mass-tort resolution versus use of the bankruptcy process.

WLF

Featuring

Professor Samir Parikh
Lewis and Clark Law School

Sherman Joyce
President
American Tort Reform Association

Archis A. Parasharami
Partner
Mayer Brown LLP

Contact glammi@wlf.org for more information

All WLF programs archived at www.wlf.org

Washington Legal Foundation
Advocate for freedom and justice®